

The New York State Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics is an advocate for the dietetic profession, serving the public through the promotion of optimal nutrition, health, and well being.

WHAT IS A REGISTERED DIETITIAN NUTRITIONIST?

A Registered Dietitian Nutritionist (RDN) is a food and nutrition expert. A RDN can hold additional certifications in specialized areas of practice, such as pediatric or renal nutrition and diabetes education. About half of all registered dietitians work in clinical settings, private practice or health-care facilities. Many work in community and public health settings, academia and research, business, journalism, sports nutrition and wellness programs.

NYSAND

NYSAND is an organization representing Registered Dietitian Nutritionists who are residing, working or attending school in NYS. With approximately 5,000 members, NYSAND is affiliated with the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics. Within NYSAND, there are ten district associations. Many of our members hold New York State Certification as Dietitian/Nutritionist (CDN).
